MUDDY AT HARLEM.

With a track knee deep with sloppy mud and a drizzling rain falling the entire afternoon it is no wonder that the racing at Harlem Friday was tame and devoid of interest. It is amazing, however, how the crowds keep up, and despite all the drawbacks to the enjoyment of racing about 3,000 regulars and steady patrons of the sport were on hand.

Tom Barrett's George Kinney—Alma H. filly, Brownie Anderson, won the best race of the day, and in doing so displayed rare gameness. The filly's long suit is mud, and with only 100 pounds on her back she appeared to have a great chance to beat Nettie Regent, Ida Ledford and Avenstoke, and at 4 to 1 Mr. Barrett and his friends backed her well. Florinel II. was not conceded a chance by the talent, and went to the post begging at 20 to 1.

This same Florinel II. is a mud lark from away back and possesses considerable speed. She was fortunate in getting a flying start and it made Brownie Anderson do her best to win and then it was only a nose victory and so very close that only the judges could tell correctly which filly had won. McQuade rode Brownie Anderson and handled her to perfection. He got away second, was always in a good position and when the pinch came rode a powerful finish.

Nettie Regent was a 2 to 1 favorite for the Brownie Anderson race, but she got into a jam shortly after the start and to keep from going down Mitchell was compelled to pull her almost to a standstill, and this naturally ruined whatever chance she had of winning.

Canace is possibly about the best three-year-old filly now in training around here and Nick Hall races her most consistently. The filly prefers a hard fast track but she can run in the mud if necessary, as was shown in the last race. She had a fast lot to beat and with the track in the condition that it was, she seemed to be up against a hard proposition and the ring took liberties laying at post time 4 to 1. Mr. Dwyer sent H. S. Tobacco away flying and he set a clicking pace with Canace always within striking distance. In the stretch Winkfield made his run with Canace and below the eighth post the filly passed the leader and from there home simply cantered. Tom Barrett started Josephine B. in the Canace race and had a big combination ending up on her for second place. The filly got away so badly that she had no chance and finished fifth.

Maud Wallace displayed a great fondness for the mud in the mile for all ages, and at 7 to 1 she cantered in front all the way, winning easily by three lengths. Sam Lazarus, the 8 to 5 favorite, was overweighted and finished fourth.

Vitote beat the barrier with Olekma, a 5 to 1 chance, in the initial four and a half furlong 2-year event and won away off by himself.

Nick Hall was extremely busy, and besides winning with Canace, he also annexed a purse to his bank account with Facade in the second event. Facade broke eighth running, got to the front about the half-mile ground and remained there to the end. Mr. Johnson, the odds-on favorite, was the runner up.

Inuendo was always a good mud runner and with the greatest of ease he romped home six lengths in front of Supreme and Warren Point in the fifth event.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Three daughters of Rayon d'Or have been sold to go to England. It is presumed they were purchased for Mr. W. C. Whitney of New York. They are Reine d'Or (dam of Rueh), out of Lilly R., by Glenelg, purchased from T. C. McDowell; Ray Belle (dam of Sea Robber and Merry Thought), out of Bluegrass Belle, by War Dance, purchased from Dr. W. A. Smith of Canada; and The Belle (dam of Rensselaer and Belle of Troy). The Belle is a full sister to Ray Belle, and was purchased from J. E. McDonald of New York.

Friday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Eugenia Wickes, who in her day has held her own with the best sprinters in the west, has been seen at the post for the last time. Before the stake race yesterday trainer Arthur Newsom announced that whatever the result of that race might be it was Eugenia Wickes' last race. She has become old and cunning and having outlived her usefulness as a racemare she will now be sent to Mr. Jungbluth's farm to take her place in the stud."

Odum will not be seen in the saddle at Aqueduct or Benning. At least that is the present intention of his father. The boy is not in the best of health, and as his season has been a long and hard one, it really seems as if he has earned a rest. He expects to winter at his parents' home in Georgia. Early in the spring he will go to Mr. Whitney's farm to help gallop the horses that will race next year.

A race meeting in connection with the State Fair will begin at Birmingham, Ala., November 7. Col. W. R. Letcher has been engaged to act as presiding judge and C. J. Fitzgerald will do the starting. Gratz Hanly is managing the racing department of the fair.

W. M. Barriek has purchased of J. E. Madden the two-year-old bay colt McMeekin, by Fonso Daisy Rose. While the terms of the sale were private, the colt is believed to have cost Barriek in the neighborhood of $7,500.

J. H. McCormick, probably acting for L. V. Bell, has purchased Radford from William Lakeland. It is not likely that the latter's suspension will affect the colt's starting, as he has never run in Lakeland's name.

Winner—Ch. m. by Charaxus—Ethie.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first three were doing their best. Rosinante is a homestretch wonder. She only won in the last two strides. Sly was probably not quite at her best.
This race will do her good. Lothian showed fine speed today. A dry track suits him best.
Torsida ran creditably. Cromwell ran a bad race.
Overweights—Torsida, 3 pounds.
Rosinante, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Sly, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Lothian, show, 2 to 1.
Cromwell, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third easily. Wyoming ran in his best form and his rider saved every inch of ground possible. Opponent would have beaten him with an equally good ride. Mamie G. was cut off three times, losing considerable ground each time. New Moon and Mike Rice are speedy, but cannot stand pressure.

Winner—Ch. f. by Onondaga—Pixy.

Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third were under keen pressure. Olekma beat the barrier and reeled in the going. She is a very ordinary filly and this performance was above her notch. Farrie was badly interfered with early and seemed hopelessly beaten in the stretch but in the last quarter she made up much ground. Antonietta quit badly in the stretch. La Carina is a slow beginner and likes a route. Daisy O ran out at the head of the stretch. Emma R. ran well about three furlongs and then retired. Terralene was a false alarm. Overweights—Antonietta, 4 pounds; Niverna, 24; Emma R., 2; Farrie, 2; Terralene, 3. Olekma, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Farrie, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Antonietta, show, 2 to 1. Winner—B. g. by Fabulous—Rupes.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won hand ridden; the next three were doing their best. Facade displayed a fine turn of speed and also a liking for the mud. He looked fit and ready, and judging by the way he won he was so. Mr. Johnson was interfered with several times, and, this considered, about ran his race. Ramlet was right there all the way, but seemed out to the last once at the finish. Princess Murphy was under a hard drive through the last three furlongs. Prospero ran a poor race. Miss Dooley showed speed, but could not carry it far. It was a lot of bad racing.

Scratched—(14878)Animus, 107.

Facade, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Mr. Johnson, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Ramlet, show, 3 to 1. Prospero, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by George Kinney—Alma H.

Off at the first break. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; second and third also driving. Brownie Anderson ran an extremely game race. McQuade punished her hard from the head of the stretch home and the filly barely got up in time to win. It was a close finish. Florinel II. reeled in the going, had plenty of speed and would have won with a stronger finish. He is a fairly good colt in the mud. Man of Honor ran his usual honest race. He is consistent on any kind of a track. Ida Ledford ran better than she did when last out. She and Nettie Regent were badly interfered with down the backstretch. The latter was jammed into the fence and Mitchell had to pull her up to avoid falling. This accounts for her bad race. Avenstock was overweighted.

Scratched—(15284)Ailanto, 103.

Brownie Anderson, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Florinel II., place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Man of Honor, show, 2 to 1. Avenstock, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Nettie Regent, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Regalis—Miss Birle.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving to the limit. Maud Wallace showed the most speed and ran a clever race. She shot to the front early and always held the others safe. Tommy O'Brien, slow to begin and interfered with several times, ran a good, game race. From the three-eighths post home he made up a lot of ground. Macie Maree had no excuse, and did the best she could. In the last fifty yards she staggered all over the track. Sam Lazarus Esq. was overweighted. He showed some speed down the back stretch but in the last quarter quit badly.

Scratched—15299 Satan, 87; 15282 Hugh Penny, 115.

Overweights—Homer C. Davenport, 34 pounds; Sir Fitzhugh, 4. Maud Wallace, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Tommy O'Brien, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Macie Maree, show, 4 to 5. Sam Lazarus Esq. place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Jim Gore—Mischief.

Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. The next four were under keen pressure. Inuendo showed fine speed and played with his field. He is strictly a mud horse. From a bad beginning Supreme ran a good race. She had no chance to beat Inuendo and her poor send-off cut no figure in the result. Warren Point was tiring badly and barely lasted long enough to be third. Borden finished with a rush. Lucid took the longest route. Otherwise he would have been third. Isen showed speed, but retired early.

Overweights—Isen 5 pounds.

Inuendo, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Supreme, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Warren Point, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Creighton—Nellie Bell.
Post 15 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly. There was much action behind the winner. Winkfield rode well on Canace and the filly ran one of her best races. She is a consistent performer and when ridden like she was today, it takes a good horse to beat her in any kind of going. H. S. Tobacco broke flying, had clear sailing and no excuses. He is not game. Andes was raced into submission chasing H. S. Tobacco through the first half. Her Favor and Josephine B. both did well from a bad start. The latter would have been a keen contender with an equal break.

Scratched—15260 Bertha Nell, 101.
